No. 6-Mule race; free for all; quarter of a mile.

Tournament Committee.

The tournament program is in the hands summer evenings. It went into effect for the season at the Centennial Baptist Church last night.

To furnish an example, Dr. Swem started the ball rolling by rising in the pulpit and shedding his own coat; he even went so far as to turn back his shirtsleeves to the started for action, started to the present for action, started to the except on very informal occasions. And that was the keynote of the whole thing-informality. Undoubtedly "a comfortable time was enjoyed by all."
